Mother Theresa’s ANYWAY prayer
People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway.
If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway.
If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway.
If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway.
If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway.

FATHER BOODIE MEMORIAL GOLF CLASSIC
Our Annual Golf Classic is approaching and will be held on Friday, May 6th, at the Piankeshaw River Golf Club. Our Silent Auction will begin next Sunday and last for three Sundays.
The following businesses and/or individuals have sponsored golf holes: Al Langer, Hurd’s, Fleet Brothers, Kathryn Bilyeu, Bristow Faulconer Funeral Home, Tom Shepard, Steve Forte, Joe Brindley, Cynthia Lewis, Revere Gas, Andrew Burry Jr, and Title Associates.
The following businesses and/or individuals have donated items for our silent auction or raffle prizes: Something Different, Southside Sentinel, Pam Waldron, Bob Scherrer, Eddie’s Auto Service, Peggy Williams, Gloucester Toyota, Brendan O’Brien, Mary Wakefield Roston, Piankeshaw Golf Course, Lynn Dreelin, The Table, By the Bay Stained Glass, and the Harriman’s. Please take time to thank these persons and patronize the businesses as appropriate.

Carillon
After a faithful five years of shepherding the Carillon and ensuring it rings melodiously each day, Bob Cerullo is turning over the keyboard to Skip Kramb. Our thanks to Bob for so diligently filling the air with delightful sounds.

RETREAT TONIGHT AND TOMORROW NIGHT
Church of the Visitations is hosting a retreat on “Mercy” given by Fr. Michael Renninger of St. Mary’s Parish in Richmond.
Fr. Renninger is well known for his extensive knowledge and excellent presentations. He has given many retreats throughout the diocese and elsewhere.
He has also made several video presentations for the diocese, and has a series of homily presentations on U tube. We are very fortunate to be able to have him visit us.
If you desire to come and have not signed up, please see Eileen O’Brien after Mass. Dinner will be served each evening before Father speaks.
We will be inviting other parishes to participate with us. For our parishioners there will be no cost for the meal but donations will be accepted.
Please treat yourself to this retreat! It will be truly inspiring.
Eileen O’Brien

VIRGINIA BISHOPS STATEMENT ON ACTIONS BY GOVERNOR AND GENERAL ASSEMBLY
The Virginia Bishops issued a strong statement about recent actions that contradict life and liberty and their core. Their words of dismay and disappointment are outlined in a two page statement posted on the Bulletin Board in the old Admin wing.
Please take some time to read it.

THANK YOU’S
Thank you to Bob Borden who installed a new commode in the Ladies’ room in the old administrative wing this past week.
In addition to his volunteer work at “Hands Across Middlesex”, Bob is now handling our routine maintenance and repair projects.
We need him and we thank him.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

GOOD SHEPHERD

On the walls of underground corridors and cemeteries where early Christians hid from their Ro- man persecutors, the most ancient representation of the risen Lord was the image of the Good Shepherd. Figures of a beardless young man bearing a lamb on his shoulders or playing a flute gave countless potential martyrs courage at times of great danger. A shepherd leads and protects. Two thousand years later who are our “good shepherds?” Heros men and women who make advances at great personal cost? Older, wiser people who watch over us and teach us by their lives? Children who dare to trust?

Who is Christ for us today?
