Father Robert Cummins, Jr.

The Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated for Father Robert Cummins, this past Tuesday, April 26,
11 a.m., at St. Thérèse, Chesapeake. Father Cummins,
75, died on Palm Sunday, April 10th.

A native of Paducah, Kentucky, Father Cummins grew up in Chicago. Having completed seminary studies, he was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Richmond on May 17, 1986.

Following ordination, he served as associate pastor at Holy Trinity, Norfolk, for four months, before being named to the same position at St. Edward, North Chesterfield.

Father Cummins served as parochial vicar of Holy Family, Virginia Beach (1989-1993). In 1993-1994, he did pastoral work in Ethiopia.

In 1995, Father Cummins was named parochial vicar at Our Lady of Nazareth, Roanoke. Subsequent assignments as parochial vicar included Star of the Sea, Virginia Beach (1996-1997), and Ascension, Virginia Beach (1997-1998). This was followed by three months as administrator of St. Rose of Lima, Hampton.

Father Cummins received his first pastorate in 1998 when he was appointed to St. Thérèse, Chesapeake, where he served until 2009.

During that time, he also served as pastor of Good Shepherd, Smithfield (2004-2008).

From 2009-2010, Father Cummins was administrator of Visitation, Topping, and St. Francis de Sales, Mathews. He was named pastor of both parishes in 2010 and served until 2016.

Thanks to all who attended this Mass for our former Pastor Fr. Robert.

ANNUAL COV GOLF TOURNAMENT

Golfers, donors, and parishioners are asked to mark their calendars for the annual Fr. John Boddie Memorial Golf Classic to be held on Friday, May 6th at the Piankatank River Golf Club in Hartfield.

This event, hosted by COV is a four-player captain's choice competition open to all. Team prizes will be awarded in each of three flights. Golfers will also compete for individual prizes.

The $90 per person entry fee covers use of the practice range, golf cart rental, green fee, on-course beverages, and dinner in the Steamboat Restaurant.

Registration begins at 11:00AM with a shotgun start at 12:00.

Proceeds will go to local charities.

As we continue to plan for this Annual Event, we still need volunteers for various administrative and golf day tasks, donors, and raffle gifts. To date we have received donations from Tom Bliley, Tom Dorman, the Foleys and the Fortes, By the Bay Stained Glass-Al Langer, Peggy Williams donated gift cards from Bubba's Shrimp Shack, Ace Hardware, and Something Different, also gift baskets of wine and garden products. The Southside Sentinel gave us a one Yr. Subscription and Specials Wine Seller of Kilmarnock donated a $50 Gift Card.

To register or for more information, Please call Gary at (571) 215-2407.

A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

Gracious God, we pray for the people of Ukraine suffering from war. May they be held in your loving care and protection and given the strength to endure their suffering and hardship. Transform the hearts and minds of those who perpetuate the violence and oppression.

Grant wisdom to world leaders in advancing efforts toward peace; may they not be compromised by self-interest and blind indifference. We ask all this through the intercession of Our Lady of Perpetual Help and in the name of your Son Jesus, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever.
Amen.

LEGACY GIFTS

Retirement funds present new opportunities for giving to your church. You may want to name your church as the final beneficiary of your individual retirement account (IRA) or other retirement funds, in the event that you and other named beneficiaries die before receiving all of the funds.

Memorial gifts to your church meet two important needs at once. (A) They allow you to express your feelings at the loss of a loved one. (B) Your gift to your church helps support its mission and ministry. Appropriate notices are sent to the bereaved family indicating the fact that your memorial gift was made. (The amount of your gift is not disclosed in this notice.)

Family Connection to today's readings.

Today's Gospel describes what we can easily imagine as a picnic on the beach. Just as Jesus' miracle at the wedding feast at Cana blesses the love between man and woman celebrated in the sacrament of marriage, Jesus' attentiveness to food and mealtimes raises the possibility that our meal gatherings can be sacred times. In families, the domestic church, our meals together are everyday opportunities to gather and recall Jesus' presence with us. As in the Eucharist, we bring the gifts that God has given us, which have been prepared especially for our Mass, and at our family meals we share gifts that God has given to us and that we have worked together to prepare. This includes the food on the table and also the people who gather around the table. We ask God to bless these gifts and to be present among us in all of our interactions.

Consider a recent family meal: What food was served? Where did the food come from? Who prepared the food? Who served the food? Was mealtime a happy time? Why or why not?

Let's pray that Jesus will make his loving presence known in our family life, especially in those moment we need each other for encouragement.

KOC ANNUAL ITALIAN FEAST

Another Grande Momento was had by all last Saturday evening at our new COV Fellowship Hall.

Over 250 clienti felici sat down to enjoy our 13th Annual Italian Feast presented by the ladies and gentlemen of our Knights of Columbus. The meal, consisting of hand made pork, beef and veal Polpetta, served with Ziti pasta, smothered with homemade Salsa de Pomodoro, accompanied by Insulada de Maria and freshly baked bread, and choice of vino Rossi or Bianca, followed by cafe et dolce, added up to a fantastical serata.

Our thanks to all who attended our event and a special thank you all who worked so hard to make it happen.

John McCormack

Have a beautiful Sunday

Today's Gospel narrative shows us the rehabilitation of Peter, who denied Jesus three times in the courtyard of Caiaphas, repented, and then received Primacy in the Church from Jesus. Three times in the Gospel of today, Jesus places his followers in care of Peter: "Feed my lambs", "Tend my sheep", "Feed my sheep". This Gospel also shows us God in search of us his created human beings, even when we try to evade Him.

The first reading, taken from the Acts of the Apostles, tells us how the Holy Spirit transformed Peter, whom Jesus had appointed head of his Church, from a man fearful of powerful men into a brave witness to the Resurrection of Jesus. Peter stands before the Jewish Supreme Court, the Sanhedrin, boldly announcing that he and the others must obey God rather than men. The second reading, taken from the book of Revelation, presents John's vision of the Risen Lord as the glorified "Lamb of God," enthroned in Heaven. The whole of Revelation is an expression of Christian hope in the Risen Lord. Today's Gospel tells the post-Resurrection story of our merciful Savior Who goes in search of His disappointed and dejected disciples. The incident proves that Jesus' post-Resurrection appearances were not mere hallucinations. In the first part of today's Gospel, the risen Jesus appears to His disciples and gives them a symbol of their mission in a miraculous catch of fish followed by a grilled fish breakfast prepared by Jesus himself. The second part is a dialogue between Jesus and Simon where Simon is asked three times whether he loves Jesus, and he answers that he does, as if in reparation for his triple denial of Jesus. The two metaphors used in the story, namely fishing and shepherding, are the duties of the Church in her evangelizing work. Peter, as a forgiven sinner, is chosen to serve as leader in a community of brothers and sisters. As his primary mission, Peter is given the care of the vulnerable lambs and sheep, and he is told that fidelity to this mission will lead him to martyrdom.

We need to open our eyes, ears, and hearts wide to see, hear, and experience the Risen Lord coming into our lives in various forms, circumstances, and events: The Risen Lord blesses us with success and achievements. We often fail to acknowledge the presence of the Risen Lord behind our unexpected successes, great achievements, promotions at work, healings, and success in relationships. He is right there in our celebrations, and occasions of rejoicing. The Risen Lord is present in our pains and suffering. Jesus is always with us in illnesses, the loss of dear ones, pain, suffering, and problems in relationships. The Risen Lord visits us through our friends and well-wishers: He is present in those who visit us and encourage us in our sad and desperate moments. The Risen Lord visits us in the form of unexpected help from the least expected persons in our dire needs.

The Risen Lord is present in our personal and community worship. He is present when we gather for the Holy Mass and shares His life with us in the words of Holy Scripture and in the Sacraments especially the Eucharist. Jesus is always here with us! This is our joy! This is our everyday Easter! That is our life! Remembering this brings us happiness and joy. For Jesus is with us and appear to us in many ways, mysterious and real through his grace, through the gifts of his Spirit, just as he appeared corporeally and really to his Apostles on the shore of the Sea of Tiberias. We need only to open our heart and minds and we will find Him.

Third Sunday of Easter
Feed my sheep

Reading I: Acts 5:27b-32, 40b-41 (disciples' second trial before the Sanhedrin)

Reading II: Revelation 5:11-14 (praise to the Lamb)

Gospel: John 21:1-19 (appearance at the Sea of Tiberias)

Key Passage: When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." (John 21:15)

Adult: In what ways are you answering Jesus' command to Peter to "feed my sheep"?

Child: What do you do to take care of others as Jesus asked Peter to do?

SAINT THERESA OF CALCUTTA'S
"ANYWAY PRAYER"

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway.
