BIBLE STUDY GROUP INVITATION

"Our adult Bible Study group has two studies planned, one for over the summer and one for later this fall.

The summer study is a seven lesson study of the book of Revelation, beginning Tuesday, June 7 and ending in late August. In the fall, we are planning a six lesson study of "Angels in the Bible" which will begin in late September or early October.

Please contact John Weidner at jaweidner1@verizon.net or 240.780.1872 if you would like to know more about or are interested in joining either of these studies."

A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

Gracious God, we pray for the people of Ukraine suffering from war. May they be held in your loving care and protection and given the strength to endure their suffering and hardship. Transform the hearts and minds of those who perpetuate the violence and oppression.

Grant wisdom to world leaders in advancing efforts toward peace; may they not be compromised by self-interest and blind indifference.

We ask all this through the intercession of Our Lady of Perpetual Help and in the name of your Son Jesus, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

Amen.

FINAL ANNUAL COV GOLF TOURNAMENT

Final Fr. Boddie Golf Tournament Held

The annual Father John Boddie Memorial Golf Classic took place on May 13 at the Piankatank River Golf Club (PRGC) in Hartfield. Hosted by the Church of

The Visitation (COV), Topping, the event concluded the series begun in 2008 to benefit both the church's building fund and many community-based charitable organizations. Now that COV has completed its building program, it is dedicating all proceeds from this year's event to community needs.

Pastor Gerry Kaggwa thanked the golfers for supporting the tournament and sent them out with a blessing for success. Even though inclement weather shortened the competition, the players gathered for clubhouse camaraderie, beverages and dinner, and awarding of prizes.

Tournament director Gary Richardson reported, "While we didn't have ideal conditions today, our golfers and volunteers showed wonderful spirit throughout as we bid farewell to this tradition in memory of Fr. Boddie. We're grateful to them and our many sponsors and donors over the years for helping this program be such a great success. Special thanks go to the superb PRGC team -- the pro shop, course superintendent, and Steamboat Restaurant staff -- for making it all run so smoothly."

The award winners were:

A Flight -- first place: Ed Lipinsky, Jim Walsh, Dave Brown, George Cummings; second place: Michele Meanley, Jerry Morgan, Courtney Mercer, Cabell Mercer; third place: Bill Puttmann, Clayton Neal, Rick Bowman, Fritz Sitterding.

B Flight -- first place: Donnie Ross, Brian Ross, Eddie Ross, Loretta Ross; second place: Al Langer, Jeff Coughter, Gary Richardson, Scott Kalbrener; third place: Chip Biley, Sky Bristow, Frank Stumpf, Ray Yearly.

C Flight -- first place: John McCormack, John Weidner, Pete Hall, Frank Lohr; second place, Tom Dorman, Mary Dorman, Ray Wilhelm, Mary Wilhelm; third place: Lynne Richardson, Donna Lange, Roseanne Moncure, Gloria Mathews

Closest to the pin: Scott Kalbrener, Ray Yearly, Jeff Coughter, Dave Brown.

Most accurate drive: Pete Hall

E-GIVING

One of the ways to support COV is to use E-Giving. A year ago the Diocese asked all parishes to implement an internet capability for parishioners to donate to their church. E-Giving is located on our COV webpage in the upper right hand corner, a red donate button. Our website is: www.church-of-the-visitation.org

Clicking on the donate button brings you to the COV donation E-giving pages. Parishioners can donate weekly, semi-weekly, monthly, quarterly or yearly. Donations can be designated for special collections, debt reduction, flowers, Uganda, and more. Money can be donated by a direct payment from your checking account, or can be donated by using a credit card.

For questions about the COV E-giving program please contact the office. We encourage parishioners to consider E-Giving. For parishioners that are registered in another church but attend COV during the summer E-Giving can designate an additional donation to COV.

Thank you for considering E-Giving to support Church of the Visitation.

MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day has come to mean the beginning of summer, a time for picnics and barbecues, and a holiday to gather around the family. That happiness and freedom, however, is a product of the real cause for the holiday: the sacrifice made by men and women who have fought and died for the freedoms and liberties that Americans hold dear. Memorial Day is a time to remember that the American way of life is not cheap but rather has been purchased by the lives and blood of so many who have sacrificed for us to live free and happily now.

We Honor You Today

To all of our veterans
Far and near.
We thank you for your service
For all those years.

You sacrificed your time,
And some gave your life.
You preserved our freedom
By willingly paying the price.

Many of you
Were sent overseas.
You were wounded in battle,
With scars and disease.

But courageous and brave,
You weathered the storm.
You faced every battle
With faith and beyond.

We honor you with joy
For all that you've done.
You stood strong for our country,
For our daughters and sons.

So no one stands alone,
We walk hand in hand.
Remember, we are with you.
Together we shall stand.
We salute you today.
Hear what we say.

Let our words speak eloquently
In this special way.

On this day,
Let us express our love & thanks
For the sacrifice you paid.
You served in honor
For many years and days,
And we will never forget
How you were strong and brave.

IN MEMORY OF OUR DECEASED IN VETERANS

The Knights of Columbus will honor all deceased veterans and in particular those interred or memorialized in the COV Cemetery at 9:30 am in the Cemetery on Monday, 30 May 2022. This brief, but poignant ceremony remembers those men and women who served the Armed Forces and reminds us of the freedoms we enjoy because of their dedication to duty and country.

All are welcomed. Please join the Knights in paying tribute to our veterans.

Today's readings describe the Ascension of the Lord Jesus his Heavenly glory after promising to send the Holy Spirit to the Apostles as the source of Heavenly power and commanding them to bear witness to Him through their lives and preaching the Good News of the Gospel throughout the world. But the ascended Jesus is still with us because of His promise, "I am with you always; yes, to the end of time". He is with us at all times and in all places.

The first reading, taken from the Acts of the Apostles, presents the scene of Jesus' Ascension, the promise of the Holy Spirit, his instructions to the apostles to wait in Jerusalem for the Power from above, and the missionary command to the apostles to bear witness to him. In the second reading, Paul teaches us that God revealed His might in the Resurrection and Ascension of Christ and in exalting Him over all angelic forces. Jesus remains accessible to us now in the life-giving Holy Spirit, assuring us that one day we, too, will be ascending to Heavenly glory, provided that, with His grace, we live out our Faith in Him through the mission of loving service He entrusts to us. Today's Gospel tells us that, with his return to the Father, Jesus completes his mission on earth. But just before his Ascension, Jesus entrusted to the disciples the mission of preaching the Good News and evangelizing the whole world by bearing witness to him through their lives. It is in his Ascension that we see Jesus entering fully into the life and glory of God. And we are given a hint of what life will be like in Heaven. The prospect of sharing that glory should be the driving force of our lives.

Jesus is sending us to be proclaimers and evangelizers: To be a Christian is to be a proclaimer and an evangelizer. There is a difference between preaching and proclaiming. We preach with words, but we proclaim with our lives. Let us ask the guidance of the Spirit of God to bear witness to Jesus by our transparent Christian lives.

As the Church of Jesus, we have a teaching mission: Jesus taught us lessons of Faith, Hope, Love, forgiveness, mercy, and salvation by his life and his preaching and gave us the same mission for our brothers and sisters. Hence, let us learn about Jesus and his teachings through our daily study of his teachings in the Gospels, and experience Jesus in our personal prayer, our reception of the Sacraments and our works of charity, and convey to others Jesus whom we experience with the help of the Holy Spirit.

We need Jesus as our source of strength and encouragement in doing His will: We will be able to overcome doubts about our Faith and baseless fears, anxieties, and worries by meditating on Jesus' Ascension and the lesson it teaches — that we, too, are sent to proclaim the Good News to our brothers and sisters, and that we are called to share his glory in Heaven.

During this week before we celebrate Pentecost, let us pray like the apostles and disciples of Jesus for a renewed outpouring of the Holy Spirit on us and the entire Church so as to respond better to God and his call. We pray that the celebration of Pentecost will lead to the Church being renewed and strengthened by God's Spirit.

SAINT THERESA OF CALCUTTA'S "ANYWAY PRAYER" People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway. Breathe in Love, Exhale Peace.
