Ed's research is centered around identifying needs for adult faith formation and could not be more timely in this time of Synodality and Eucharistic Revival. Ed is scheduled to present the results of his work at the next regular meeting of our Church of the Visitation Parish Council on Thursday, July 14, at 7:00 p.m. Interested parishioners are welcome to attend.

ASSESSMENTS (part 3)

As previously noted, monthly we remit to the diocese a payment for four assessments-Cathedraticum, Catholic Virginian, Parish Sharing, and Property and Liability insurance.

The Cathedraticum and Catholic Virginian assessments have been discussed. The parish sharing assessment is our share of support for the Catholic Schools in the Diocese. A parish's proximity to a Catholic School (s) and the number of parishioners in attendance determine what percentage of your offertory receipts should be assessed. In our case that number is 2%, the lowest amount that can be assessed.

Our property and liability insurance assessment is the monthly premium for the subject insurance. Bi-annually, the Diocesan Risk Management office inspects us to ensure the environment is safe. Our results have always been excellent with minor discrepancies. Risk Management has repeatedly stated we have an excellent claims record.

As for what these assessments cost us monthly, parish sharing is $230 and insurance $321.

Opportunity to Help Local Children

Bright Beginnings is a YMCA program to equip children with the resources to get off to a good start in the school year. The Middlesex Family Y has helped over 600 children in past years, and the goal is to serve at least 40 children this year. More information will be coming on what school supplies are needed.

The priority, at this time, is to find "shopping buddies" to partner with a child to shop on Thursday, August 11th at the Williamsburg Target (200 Marquis Parkway) at 10:00am.

If you are not able to shop, monetary donations are welcomed. Checks should be made out to: Middlesex Family YMCA (Bright Beginnings on Memo line) Drop off at Y or mail to P.O. Box 524, Hartfield, VA 23071

THANK YOU

We want to thank everybody of "Church of the Visitation" for making the Baptism of our grandson Easton so special for us.

Our family, with parents and godparents extend a heartfelt "thank you" for making Easton's baptism truly a time to remember. We will always cherish this moment.

Bob and Ingrid Borden.

ORDINARY TIME

We have returned to the period of the Liturgical Year entitled Ordinary Time. Ordinary Time refers to all of those parts of the Catholic Church's liturgical year that aren't included in the major season of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter.

Ordinary Time thus encompasses two difference periods in the Church's calendar, since the Christmas season immediately follows Advent, and the Easter season immediately follows Lent.

Because the term "ordinary" in English most often means something that's not special or distinctive, many people think that Ordinary Time refers to parts of the calendar of the Catholic Church that are unimportant. Even though the season of Ordinary Time make up most of the liturgical year in the Catholic Church, the fact that Ordinary Time refers to those periods that fall outside of the major liturgical seasons reinforces this impression.

Yet Ordinary Time is far from unimportant or uninteresting. The normal liturgical color for Ordinary Time for those days when there is no special feast is green. Green vestments and altar cloths have traditionally been associated with the time after Pentecost, the period in which the Church founded by the risen Christ and enlivened by the Holy Spirit began to grow and to spread the Gospel to all nations.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

The Knights of Columbus will be sponsoring a Pancake Breakfast after Mass on July 10th.

The menu will be pancakes, sausage, juice & coffee.

Please stay after and enjoy breakfast and camaraderie with fellow parishioners.

Donations accepted.

LEGACY GIFTS

Life insurance is a way to make a larger gift to your church than you might otherwise be able to afford. Consider naming your church as a beneficiary of any life insurance policy.

If the needs of other beneficiaries will be met in other ways, why not make your church the owner and beneficiary of one of your life insurance policies? If you do this, you may receive a significant income tax deduction and future premiums you pay may also qualify for an income tax deduction.

Potential Promise & Purpose

The central message of today is loving God living in our neighbors. We are called today to become good neighbors. The first reading, taken from Deuteronomy, reminds us that God not only gives us His Commandments in Holy Scriptures, but that they are also written in our hearts so that we may obey them and inherit eternal life. In the second reading, St. Paul reminds the Colossians, and us, that just as Christ Jesus is the "visible image of the invisible God," so our neighbors are the visible image of Christ living in our midst. In today's Gospel, a scholar of the law, asks Jesus a very basic religious question: "What should I do to inherit eternal life?" In answer to the question, Jesus directs the lawyer's attention to the Sacred Scriptures. The Scriptural answer is, "love God and express it by loving your neighbor." Today's gospel is about the most important aspect of our religion, how a Christian has to live: Our Christian faith is expressed in concrete acts of love.

In the gospel the lawyer asks Jesu what he ought to do to inherit eternal life. Jesus asked him what was written in the law. He quotes the law stating, 'you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself'. But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus: "And who is my neighbor?" In answer, Jesus instead of going into the details of the law and Hebrew Scriptures, tells the poignant story of the Good Samaritan. Very cleverly Jesus points out the difference between 'knowing the law' and 'fulfilling the law'. For him the most important thing was not knowing or keeping the law but love. All activities of our faith are important but if at times there is a clash between the two, then love of neighbor has absolute priority.

In the parable Jesus gives, the first to see the half-dead man is the Jewish priest who passed by without helping. The Levite, (a member of the tribe involved in worship in the Temple) came next, he also passed by with no concern. Next came a Samaritan trader who took care of the victim. This foreigner is the one who shows compassion. He bandaged the wounds of the victim, then took him to an Inn and cared for him.

Jesus does not tell us in the story if the man robbed was a Jew or a non-Jew, whether he even believed in God. Was he a good or a bad person? The lawyer who asked the question at first focused on himself and on the need to justify himself. He is prepared to debate the question of 'who is my neighbor' in an abstract way. But Jesus deals with his questions in a very concrete manner. He is not interested in a vague question like 'who is my neighbor?' The danger with that is we may limit neighbor to those we know and live close by, those with the same religious beliefs or skin color or same status. Jesus is telling us very clearly that what makes us neighbors is our generosity in reaching out to anyone in need. He is inviting us to go beyond labels or names like Christian, Catholic, Non-believer, languages we speak, where we come from... He is asking us to cross borders and boundaries we may have grown up with or created for ourselves. Who is my neighbor, the lawyer asks? Who do I need to show God's love to? Well, the Samaritan should show God's love to the Jew, and the Jew to the Samaritan. Even though a Samaritan would rather hate a Jew than help him, and even though a Jew would rather die than take the help of a Samaritan, the radical call of the Lord is to extend God's love to all.

Jesus lived out to the fullest what it means to be a Good Samaritan. As the second reading says: "He is the image of the unseen God". His whole life was a concrete response to whoever the neighbor in need was - Jew, Samaritan, adulterous woman, prostitutes, Roman centurion, tax collectors, sinners etc. He still wants to be the Good Samaritan to each of us. He wants to bind up our wounds which may be our fears, our anxieties or whatever. It was costly for the Good Samaritan to look after the man who fell among robbers. It actually cost Jesus his life to help us.

SAINT THERESA OF CALCUTTA'S "ANYWAY PRAYER"

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway.
