LEGACY GIFTS

Proper estate planning can reduce administrative time, expense and inconvenience. Careful estate planning can also be one of the best gifts you give your family.

Who needs estate planning? Every adult who is legally competent, who owns anything and cares about who receives it at the time of their disability or death. In addition, estate planning is necessary for anyone who wants to leave a bequest for their church.

Have you moved here from another state since signing your estate planning documents? If so, consider having the documents checked by an attorney here. In addition, this might be a good time to consider naming your church to receive a gift through your estate plans.

GUEST PRIEST

Our celebrant today is Deacon Jim Satterwhite

Deacon Jim Badalis will round out the month on the 28th. Because of this change we will not have Daily Mass during August.

TODAY'S CELEBRATION SCAP

Today's celebration is termed "Sunday Celebration in the Absence of a Priest" (SCAP)

We have celebrated in this manner in the past but not recently. Some of the normal Mass procedures are suspended during SCAP and others are changed.

So as not to confuse anyone, here is a summary of noticeable changes and/or things that will occur as normal:

- *Communion will be distributed for the faithful with previously consecrated hosts.
- *There will be no entry or exit processions.
- *No hymns will be sung but instruments may be played during these times.
- *Liturgy of the word and prayers of the faithful will be as normal.
- *We will sing a communion hymn and mediation song.
- *The Gloria will be sung following the distribution of Holy Communion.
- *The collections and announcements will occur following the Gloria.
- *The sign of peace will occur after the final blessing.
- *We trust you will adapt easily to these revised procedures which will be used next Sunday as well.

Since SCAP is relatively new to our church, here is some additional information about it.

With a decline in the number of priests and/or extraordinary situations may arise where "in the judgment of the diocesan bishop, it is not practical or possible for the community to participate in the celebration of Mass in a church nearby" (SCAP n. 14). In these situations, pastors may obtain permission from the bishop for a "Sunday Celebration in the Absence of a Priest," which will ideally be led by a deacon.

WHO?

Who authorizes the use of Sunday Celebrations in the Absence of a Priest?
Only the bishop has authority to approve and regulate the use of SCAP.

If a pastor foresees a need for the use of SCAP, he may petition the bishop for permission. The pastor is responsible to ensure the integrity of the celebration, except in case of emergency where someone else may be appointed.

Who may preside over the celebration? A deacon presides over such celebrations whenever possible.

When no deacon is available, "upon the request and recommendation by the pastor, the bishop may appoint lay persons, who may be religious, as lay leaders of prayer, who are entrusted with the care of preparing and directing these celebrations" (SCAP n. 26). These lay leaders of prayer will be appointed by the bishop for a term of five years, and receive proper training to fulfill this role.

WHEN?

When is it permissible to hold a Sunday Celebration in the Absence of a Priest?

- Death or illness of the priest
- Death or emergency in the priest's family
- Unsuccessful attempts to find a replacement during serious commitments elsewhere
- Other emergency conditions according to pastoral need
- When weather conditions make it impossible for the priest to be present
- When it is not practical or possible for the community to participate in the celebration of Mass in a church nearby (SCAP n. 14)

SUNDAY OF STEWARDSHIP

Did you know August is National Make-A-Will Month? It serves as a reminder to complete important estate planning documents in preparation for the future. I'd like to challenge our community to take this one step further with Make-A-Will Sunday-a time to focus on intentional stewardship of the resources God has blessed us with. Having a will in place not only lessens the difficulty of decisions for your loved ones after your passing-it is also an opportunity to create a legacy that passes on your faith and values to future generations. So I hope you'll set aside time this Sunday, August 14th, to create a plan that stewards your resources in a God-honoring way. If you would like more information please contact the Catholic Community Foundation of the Diocese Richmond @ 804-622-5221. Or use the hyperlink (Community Foundation logo) at the top left. You will then be directed to the site for a step by step tool kit.

MARY'S CHOICE RVA-VIRTUAL BABY SHOWER

The new maternity home in Richmond for mothers in crisis pregnancies has created a baby registry on Amazon Smile. Their goal is to have enough baby gear for the next 10 women who seek help from Mary's Choice RVA. Please consider purchasing one of these items for the babies whose mothers choose life. The bigger ticket items are perfect for several people to purchase together and there are many smaller but much need items as well. The gear will be shipped directly to Mary's Choice RVA. REGRETS

With regret, we announce the death of long time parishioner Mollie McMurtrie on Saturday a week ago. Mollie and husband Robert were original parishioners. He pre-deceased Mollie in 1994. During Mollie's time as a parishioner, she was a faithful member of the Parish Life Group. A Graveside ceremony and burial was held yesterday followed by a reception in the fellowship hall.

Our prayers are with her family and friends. God Bless!

UPDATE ON FATHER GERRY

Father Gerry is safe with his family in Uganda. "All my family are doing well." -Father Gerry

He has visited the school and reported that St. Noa School is beautiful. He will be sending some photos soon. Father said that there is only one problem-water. It has not rained in Uganda since Easter, and knowing Father, he will be working on a solution for getting the school some water. Stay safe Father Gerry and we miss you.

SAINT THERESA OF CALCUTTA'S "ANYWAY PRAYER"

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway.

Breathe in Love, Exhale Peace.
