OFFERTORY COLLECTION from October 16, 2022

Collection:	$ 1,907
Second Collection: St Noa Water Project	$ 4,797
Total Offertory Collection Year to Date	$ 39,014
Total Budget Projection:	$ 38,780

Our second collection today is for World Missions.

We signed the following principal checks this week.
$1,300 Breaking Bread for 2023; $221 Little Books.

LEGACY GIFTS

The Apostle Paul, in his second letter to the church at Corinth, writes: "So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go on ahead to you, and arrange in advance for this bountiful gift that you have promised, so that it may be ready as a voluntary gift and not as an extortion." (2 Corinthians 9:5)

Paul indicates it is not enough to intend to be a good steward. You must plan, and it is by carefully making provisions for a planned gift and implementation of that plan that you will be able to enjoy the fruits of Christian stewardship!

ROSARY

Please join us as we pray the rosary every Sunday before Mass.

We begin at 8:30 am in the new worship area & we welcome all to join in this beautiful devotional prayer.

No experience necessary!

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

The youth faith formation classes will be learning about charity and giving back to the community this year. One activity we will do is participate in Operation Christmas Child. Through this project, Samaritan's Purse partners with churches worldwide to share the Good News of Jesus Christ and make disciples of the nations. We collect shoebox gifts filled with toys, school supplies, and hygiene items for children around the world. Since 1993, more than 198 million children in more than 170 countries and territories have received an Operation Christmas Child shoebox. The project delivers not only the joy of what, for many kids, is their first gift ever, but also gives them a tangible expression of God's love

We are requesting donations of 1) empty shoeboxes, 2) items to fill the shoeboxes and 3) monetary donations to cover the cost of mailing the shoeboxes around the world. A box will be in the social hall for donations through the month of October. You can find more information about what items make good donations by visiting: <https://www.samaritanspurse.org/operation-christmas-child/what-goes-in-my-shoebox-suggestions/>

The children will wrap and mail all the donated items from this church, as well as participate in a large-scale shopping, wrapping and mailing day with other local youth before National Collection Week, November 14-21 2022. Monetary donations can be made out to COV, mark Operation Christmas Child in the memo.

For more information see Shelley Katsuki.

PARISH COUNCIL ELECTIONS

We thank the parishioners who ran for election this year and the 70 or so parishioners who submitted a ballot. In the closest election we have encountered in several years, the three persons who received the most votes were in alphabetical order, Steve Kirsch, Helen Linden, and John Weidner. They will assume their positions in January 2023.

BEHIND THE SCENES

The volunteer services of our parishioners are extraordinary and provide the framework for a healthy and strong religious community.

Many of you know the ministry heads and observe the persons who each Sunday provide a visible presence of their church and parish commitment. But what about those who do the "behind the scenes" tasks that help enrich our community? Frequently we will highlight these invisible ones for your information.

Today we honor our choir. To produce the melodious tunes we hear each Sunday, they spend numerous hours practicing during the week or before Mass on Sunday. They are called on to participate in funerals and special events so their commitment of time is considerable.

Lead by Carol McCormack, regular members are: John McCormack, Frank & Gerrie Lohr, Aldo DeCollibus, Mary Sychterz, Marianne Krop, Cindy Powers, Donna Lange, Michele Meanley, Mike Dreelin, Jan Smith, Anne Baltrusaitis, Eileen O'Brien, Stuart & Serena Beckett, Dennis Caraviello, Sal Messina, Skip & Lois Kramb, and Laurie Mears.

FYI OYSTERFEST PARTICIPATION

The Urbanna Oyster Festival is November 4th-5th this year and COV will have a booth on community row headed by Peggy Williams. She headed a successful event last year selling baked goods.

Our booth will need bread bakers and workers to staff it for 2-3 hour shifts in the coming weeks we will have sign-up sheets in the Narthex asking for bread bakers and workers.

In conjunction with this effort, Eileen O'Brien is making seasonal table runners to sell, as well. If you would like to help her, please contact her.

A few Sundays ago we said farewell to our parishioners Ingeborg and Jim Peddicord. Their new address is: 212 Peach Wood Lane Virginia Beach, VA 23452. We will miss you all!

REGRETS

Former parishioner and resident of the Northern Neck, Mary Jacobs, died two Sunday's ago. Many, also known fondly as "Mary, Mary" was our Pastoral Care Coordinator for many years prior to Lynne Richardson. Her Mass of Resurrection was held this past Wednesday in our New Worship Area.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

The Knights of Columbus will be sponsoring a Pancake Breakfast after Mass today. The menu will be pancakes, sausage, juice & coffee. Please stay after and enjoy breakfast and camaraderie with fellow parishioners. Donations accepted.

NEW STAINED GLASS WINDOW

Our talented artist Al Langer completed and mounted a stained glass window in Father Gerry's vesting room 2 weeks ago.

It's a work of art by an artist. Please feel free to take a peak at the window, admire it, and thank Al for his beautiful work.

He also plans to create another window for Father's confessional booth.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

For nearly four decades now, the country has recognized October as National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. It is a time annually devoted to educating everyone about breast cancer-including metastatic breast cancer (MBC)-and the importance of early detection and access to timely, high-quality care. It rose to popularity, and each year more and more attention was presented on this issue. Pink is the color that represents supporting National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Wear pink!

In the parable that Jesus tells in today's Gospel, we have a lesson about the right attitude when in prayer. The Pharisee and tax collector both go to the Temple to pray. However, the Pharisee, instead of presenting himself humbly before God asking for God's help and grace, lists the faults of others, and complains also about the tax collector praying nearby: "O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity: greedy, dishonest, adulterous or even like this tax collector."

On the other hand, the tax collector goes to the temple in repentance. Even his body language displays his repentance: he stood away at a distance, did not raise his eyes, and he beat his breast. But it is above all in his prayer that we see his repentance: "O God, be merciful to me a sinner." Unlike the Pharisee, he did not try to conceal who he really was or put on a mask to hide his real self from God. He came to God as he was. Therefore, God met him where he was and lifted him up and went home justified.

At first, we might think the Pharisee came to God with the right attitude since he fasted twice a week. But that is not the case, because this Pharisee came to God complaining about others' sins and did not go home with the peace of God in his heart. On the other hand, the tax collector came before God in complete humility, admitting who he really was, and went home at peace with God.

Throughout Scripture, we see God coming to those who know their need of God. The first reading today from Sirach reminds us that God does not have favorites and hears the cry of the oppressed and that the prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds.

What about us? Surely the Lord is saying to us in this parable that we have nothing to fear in approaching him just as we are. In fact, this is the correct attitude to approach God, who knows everything about our lives. We can humbly admit our sinfulness and nothingness before him, and in return he will always lift us up.

Today is also World Mission Sunday. Over one billion Catholics all over the world observe this day as World Mission Sunday. This annual observance was instituted 96 years ago in 1926 by Pope Pius XI's Papal decree. Every year since then, the universal Church has dedicated the month of October to reflection on, and prayer for the missions. On World Mission Sunday, Catholics gather to celebrate the Eucharist and to contribute through collections for the work of evangelization around the world. This annual celebration gives us a chance to reflect on the importance of mission work for the life of the Church. It reminds us that we are one with the Church around the world and that we are all committed to carrying on the mission of Christ, however different our situations may be.

Hence, on this Mission Sunday, let us learn to appreciate our missionary obligation and support the Church's missionary activities by leading transparent Christian lives, by fervent prayers, and by generous hearts. May our celebrating this Mission Sunday renew in us and in all believers, the spirit of discipleship, that we may be ever more capable of true love, so that we become sources of living water and light in our World today.

Very Reverend Gerry Kaggwa V.F.

AUTUMN PRAYER

O God of Creation you have blessed us with the changing of the seasons. As we embrace these autumn months, May the earlier setting of the sun remind us to take time to rest. May the crunch of the leaves beneath our feet remind us of the brevity of this earthly life. May the steam of our breath in the cool air remind us that it is your who gives us your breath of life. May the scurrying of the squirrels and the migration of the birds remind us that you call us follow your will. We praise you for your goodness forever and ever.

Amen

SAINT THERESA OF CALCUTTA'S
"ANYWAY PRAYER"

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway.
