NOVEMBER MEMORIALS

As the month comes to a close, we thank those who placed a photo of a loved one(s) on our memorial table and/or deposited a purple slip in the prayer basket as a means of remembrance. For those who chose to place a photo there, please remember to pick it up after Mass.

ADVENT-Year A

Today we begin the season of Advent. As our tradition, we will begin Mass with the singing of the Advent Candle Song. Available on the administration table are the Word Among Us and an Advent calendar for your use. Please take one of each home to help you prepare for His coming.

General Background on the Season

Advent has a twofold character, for it is a time of preparation for the Solemnities of Christmas, in which the First Coming of the Son of God to humanity is remembered, and likewise a time when, by the First Coming of the Son of God to humanity is remembered, and likewise a time when, by remembrance of this, minds and hearts are led to look forward to Chris' Second Coming at the end of time. For these two reasons, Advent is a period of devout and expectant delight.

Advent Wreath

The use of the Advent wreath has become a popular practice in the Church. The Advent Wreath should be large enough to be visible to the members of the assembly in a given church building. In some churches, it is suspended from the ceiling. Others use a stand or a table for the wreath and candles. If the Advent Wreath is placed in or near the presbyterium (Sanctuary), it should not be placed in such a way as to interfere with the ritual actions of the liturgy or obscure the visibility of the altar, ambo, or presider's chair.

Vestments

The color of the Season of Advent is violet. In order to distinguish between Advent and lent, the bluer hues of violet may be used. Rose colored vesture will be worn on the Third Sunday of Advent, which is termed Gaudete Sunday.

5. Return all items together no later than Sunday, Dec 11th.

Dear Friends,

As we celebrate Thanksgiving Day, it is with humility and a grateful heart that I write you this note of Thanks. Thanking you for your generosity towards St. Noa School Water Project. I am without words, your response to this crisis was beyond my imagination.

Because of your generous hearts, the Well is now functioning and pumps approximately 5000 liters in the morning and in the evening, enough to for the children and teachers. The Lord is Great!

Thanks to all who have generously donated and those who continue to donate towards this project.

I am proud to be part of this loving community and pray that you continue to be witnesses to the message of Christ, which is love with no boundaries.

Thank you and may God bless you all during this festive season.

Fr. Gerry Kaggwa

First Sunday of Advent "A" 11/27/2022

Today the Church begins a New Liturgical Year with the season of Advent. The term Advent is 2 words put together. AD means towards. VENTI from the Latin verb venire: to come. So, Advent means towards the coming or Arrival.

Advent reminds us of the 3 comings of Jesus, the First was his being born in Bethlehem, which is what Christmas celebrates. The Second Coming is right now as each day he comes to us. He knocks on our doors through the sacraments of the Church, through others, through the events of our lives, etc. He comes to us in ways that are so ordinary that often we miss these. Like a visit we receive from someone when we feel a bit low or a compliment from another when I do something good. Or again, a challenge from someone when I may be behaving in a way that is not life-giving for myself or others. Have I made room for him or my life is so filled up that I have no place for him. The Third coming will be his coming at the end of time.

Advent is also a time of learning. The first reading today is from the prophet Isaiah. He invites us to go to God in order that 'he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths'. Isaiah spells this out for us as we wait for Jesus to come. He invites us to hammer our swords into ploughshares and our spears into sickles, the tools for harvesting. What swords do we have and use towards others in our daily lives? Maybe the swords of unforgiveness, the swords of anger, of selfishness, threats, discrimination, or our influence on others, etc. etc. St. Paul in the second reading invites us to throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light which is: courage, truth, integrity, compassion, and love.

So, Jesus comes and surprises us at the least unexpected hour especially in our daily encounters with those he gives us as brothers and sisters. Waiting for the Lord does not take us out of history, but it involves us more in it, since God has come and is in our midst.

Advent invites us to ask ourselves "In what direction are we going as we make our way towards the coming of Son of God?" Hopefully the answer will be "Towards Jesus, towards peace and solidarity with everyone, a desire we all share".

Jesus says to his listeners: "Stay awake because you do not know the hour when your Lord will be coming". And he uses two little examples from their history to remind us about the unexpected coming of Christ.

We must beware of seeing today's readings of this First Sunday of Advent as a kind invitation from the Lord to us. In fact, Jesus, who loves us passionately and unconditionally, is concerned only for our well-being, for our good. This is the Good News. He came into our world to reveal to us God's total love for us and showed us, through his teachings and his life, what leads to true peace and joy beginning right now. Today's readings are not to cause fear in our hearts, but to allow hope to take over more and more in the place of fear. Jesus is encouraging us to do this by staying alert. The coming of the Christ was and is the best of good news, a gift beyond imagining! It calls for joy and gratitude. Our response should not be fear, but hope, readiness, and gratitude that Our Lord is coming to dwell among us.

Very Reverend Gerry Kaggwa V.F.

ATTENTION TO DETAIL

Recently, we have encountered several instances of the misuse of utilities or a failure to safeguard the premises, after a parish entity, group, or even an individual has used our building.

Notably, lights are left on, the heat is left on high or air conditioning set low, or an outside door left open. If you are using the building after normal office hours, please be vigilant about these things and ensure we have a secure building that's not lighted, heated, or cooled unnecessarily.

We all share a responsibility to shepherd our resources. Thank you

"ANYWAY PRAYER"

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway.
