LEGACY

A good estate plan provides security for a spouse and/or family. Every adult should prepare a will. Be sure to include your parish or school.

Who will take your place as a generous benefactor? A memorial gift in your will could continue your generosity after death. Make that gift through a bequest in your will.

Your generosity during your lifetime has enabled our parish to serve the people of God in this community. Continue to be a part of this community by making a bequest in your will.

Forgiveness and Mercy

In today's Gospel reading from Matthew, Jesus has just finished instructing his disciples on the important role of forgiveness and prayer in uniting the community of disciples when Peter asks how far a person should go in being willing to forgive. Peter asks Jesus, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" With his attempt to provide a potential answer to his own question, Peter suggests seven times, which is the biblical number of perfection. Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times, but seventy-seven times." Jesus' response transcends even perfection, as he contends that there must be no end to a disciple's willingness to forgive another.

The Catechism says that the parable of the merciless servant which immediately follows Jesus' exchange with Peter crowns the Lord's teaching on ecclesial communion. The parable ends with these words: "So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from the heart." It is here, in fact, "in the depths of the heart," that everything is bound and loosed. It is not in our power to feel or forget an offense; but the heart that offers itself to the Holy Spirit turns injury into compassion and purifies the memory in transforming the hurt into intercession. (CCC 2843)

This teaching is in the last few pages of the Catechism, where the most perfect of prayers, the Lord's Prayer, is examined in beautiful detail.

"And forgive us our trespasses...as we forgive those who trespass against us"

This "as" is not unique in Jesus' teaching: "You, therefore, must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect"; "Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful"; "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another." (Mt 6:14-15, Mt 5:23-24, Mk 11:25) It is impossible to keep the Lord's commandment by imitating the divine model from outside; there has to be vital participation, coming from the depths of the heart, in the holiness and the mercy and the love of our God. Only the Spirit by whom we live can make "ours" the same mind that was Christ Jesus. Then the unity of forgiveness becomes possible and we find ourselves "forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave" us. (CCC 2842)

Jesus expects of us to forgive from the depths of the heart. With that in mind, our Question of the Week asks:

When someone hurts you, how do you forgive them?

PLEASE SIGN UP FOR DIRECTORY PHOTOS

Photos for the Parish Directory will be taken this week on September 19 and September 20 from 2:30 to 8:30 pm. We would like to have all parishioners included; however several have not scheduled an appointment. If you have not yet scheduled your appointment, please do so either online at www.udcir.com, or by seeing Pat Marchant or Lynne Richardson after Mass today. You can also call the office on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, or Thursdays for help.

Those who wish to schedule their own appointment should visit the website at ucdir.com or scan the QR code above: Church code: va221 Password: photos

SECURITY ISSUES

Our security committee met recently and determined that for security purposes, we should lock the Narthex Entrance doors once Mass has begun. Accordingly, beginning next Sunday, September 24th, we will close the door leading into the Narthex doors at 9:00 am with an usher in attendance to accommodate late arrivals. At 9:10, we will lock the doors and the usher will join the congregation.

SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

We are all aware of the importance of Catholic Schools and their importance to the future of our religion. Several years ago the Diocese launched a "Learn to Lead" campaign to fund local priorities at its 23 schools, and enhance financial aid. Although it has been successful, the campaign is still short of the original goal. As a result, Bishop Knestout is requesting a special collection to support our Catholic Schools during the last weekend of September.

The process will be similar to the Annual Appeal (pledge card will be handed out during Mass). We will conduct our special collection on September 24th. The importance of Catholic Schools cannot be underestimated. We trust you will recognize this and donate accordingly.

PARISH COUNCIL NOMINATIONS & ELECTIONS

A parish pastoral council is advisory, making recommendations to the pastor about the spiritual well-being of the parish. As a "visionary" council, it concerns itself with where the parish wants to be in three to five years and not with the administrative aspects of running the parish. The role of the parish council is described in detail in the Diocesan guidelines contained in the booklet "Called to Serve".

There are nine elected members on our parish council who, together with the various ministry committee chairs, meet every other month for prayer and to develop recommendations for the pastor. Each year, in October, we elect three parishioners to serve a three year term on the council.

Kevin Hayes, Kathy Swineheart and Mary Schyterz will be completing their three year terms at the end of this year. If nominated, all three are eligible to stand for re-election.

Nomination forms for next month's election will be available at Mass this Sunday. Please prayerfully consider whether you or someone you know should be nominated to serve on our parish council.

Next Sunday, September 24, we will be collecting nomination forms. Forms may be dropped into the collection basket, handed to an usher, or delivered to the church office. You are welcome to email your nominations to the church office before Sunday or up to Wednesday morning, September 27.

Nominations will be published in the October 1 bulletin and we will announce the nominees at Mass on October 10.

We plan to collect ballots at Mass on Sunday, October 15 and will accept ballots at the church office beginning Tuesday, October 10 through Wednesday, October 18. As with nominations, you are welcome to email your vote to the church office.

Questions about parish council nomination and election process can be directed to John Weidner, Parish Council Chair or Ray Kostaskey, Church Administrator

FR. JOHN BODDIE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND UPDATE

Thanks to everyone for their support of the Fr. John Boddie Memorial Scholarship Fund. The annual fund drive has collected over $6,000, and these funds have been invested with the Community Foundation.

So far in 2023 the Scholarship fund has provided $8,381 in scholarship and educational grants in support of COV programs and students. The application for scholarships and grants are being updated on the website. All new request must be on forms dated August 15, 2013. If you have questions please see Tom Hawksworth or Andrea Moore.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION SMALL GROUP STUDY

Eucharist: Sacred Meal, Sacrifice, Real Presence

One of the outcomes from the Synod consultations held early last year was a need for additional education about fundamental teachings and beliefs of the Catholic Church, especially the church's teaching on the Sacrament of Communion.

As part of our efforts to address this need, and since we are in the Year of Parish Eucharistic Revival, Adult Faith Formation is planning a small group study entitled "Eucharist: Sacred Meal, Sacrifice, Real Presence" to be held in October and November.

This study will examine in more detail the themes addressed by Bishop Robert Barron in his short book, This Is My Body - A Call to Eucharistic Revival, which many of us have been reading this summer. Some folks have had difficulty reading through some of Bishop Barron's academic and philosophical prose. Other folks may have enjoyed reading the material, but have not yet taken the initiative to share what they have learned. Perhaps joining this small group study will give us a chance to learn together and learn from each other.

During each session of the small group study, we will watch and listen to a short (less than 25 minutes) DVD presentation and then break out into smaller groups for discussion. Each participant will have a study guide that has commentary, questions for understanding and questions for application. There are some additional short readings from scripture and the Catechism.

We are planning to offer each session twice weekly, on Monday evening, starting at 6:00 and on Wednesday morning after Mass at 9:45. Each session goes about an hour, maybe a little longer. Our working schedule for the study is:

- Session 1: Introduction - Mon, Oct 9 and Wed, Oct 11
- Session 2: Sacred Meal - Mon, Oct 16 and Wed, Oct 18
- Session 3: Sacrifice - Mon, Oct 30 and Wed, Nov 1
- Session 4: Real Presence - Part I Mon, Nov 6 and Wed., Nov 8
- Session 5: Real Presence, Part II - Mon, Nov 13 and Wed, Nov 15

We are suggesting a donation of $10 per participant to cover a portion of the cost of the study guides. You can sign up for the study after Mass in the Narthex. You may also contact John Weidner directly at 240-780-1872 or jaweidner1@verizon.net to join the study or if you have any questions.

THE PARISH PICNIC IS NEXT WEEK

Next Sunday, September 24, we will have a late morning picnic immediately following Mass. The parish will provide hamburgers, hot dogs, and non-alcoholic beverages. We ask that you bring a side dish or dessert to share with others. We'll have games to play such as cornhole, velcro toss, and bingo. If you have a different game to share, please bring it with you. Those who prefer alcoholic beverages are free to bring your own.

Please contact Johnna Harris if you are willing to help with set-up or clean-up.

"ANYWAY PRAYER"

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway.
