LEGACY

Seven out of 10 of us DO NOT have a will! What are we thinking? No will? Do we not care what happens to those assets we will leave behind? Did you know:

1. Without a will, your state's laws—not you— determine how, when and to whom your property is distributed?
2. You can reduce (or perhaps even eliminate) estate taxes and save taxes in a survivor's estate?
3. You can name your executor to manage and settle your estate?
4. You can designate beneficiaries for items such as heirlooms, art objects, jewelry or real estate?
5. You may create trusts to provide for your spouse, children and others?
6. You can be a blessing to Church of the Visitation through a bequest, which is simple, flexible and tax-deductible?
7. With a will, you can designate the guardian you wish for those under your care?

WE ARE PROTECTED BY ANGELS

This past Friday, September 29, was the Feast of Saints Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, the three archangels mentioned in Scripture by name. Tomorrow, October 2, is the Memorial of the Holy Guardian Angels.

Michael's name literally means, "Who can compare to God?" He manifests God's power and might by battling Satan, the huge dragon and ancient Serpent, and casting him from heaven. Michael guards the people of God, defends the souls of the just, and bears them to their final judgment. In 1886, Pope Leo XIII composed the Prayer of Saint Michael, which was said at the end of Mass for many years:

"Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all evils spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls."

The first "guardian angel" to appear in Scripture is the angel of the Lord who protects the Israelites from all danger on their Exodus from Egypt. We should continue to take courage in God's protective love, made manifest in the guardian angels, as we set out on the daily journey of life.

One of the most consoling truths of our faith is that God's providence does not only govern the cosmos from afar; he shows an intimate concern for the welfare of each person. A touching sign of this is that God gives us angels to serve as protectors and guides throughout life. Our guardian angels' mission is to conduct us safely through the perils of our earthly life into the joys of eternal life. We can be assured of their powerful help in all things when we seek to win the joys of heaven.

The Catechism teaches that the existence of the spiritual, non-corporeal beings that Sacred Scripture usually calls "angels" is a truth of faith. (CCC 328) Until Christ's return, the whole life of the Church benefits from the mysterious and powerful help of angels. (CCC 334) Human life, from beginning until death, is surrounded by their watchful care and intercession. "Beside each believer stands an angel as protector and shepherd leading him to life." (CCC 336)

Reflecting on all of those times that it seemed as if someone special was watching over us and protecting us, this week we ask:

How have you show gratitude for the intercession of the archangels and your own guardian angel?

PARISH COUNCIL NOMINATIONS & ELECTIONS

A parish pastoral council is advisory, making recommendations to the pastor about the spiritual well-being of the parish. As a "visionary" council, it concerns itself with where the parish wants to be in three to five years and not with the administrative aspects of running the parish. The role of the parish council is described in detail in the Diocesan guidelines contained in the booklet "Called to Serve".

There are nine elected members on our parish council who, together with the various ministry committee chairs, meet every other month for prayer and to develop recommendations for the pastor. Each year, in October, we elect three parishioners to serve a three year term on the council.

Kevin Hayes, Kathy Swinehart and Mary Sychterz will be completing their three year terms at the end of this year. If nominated, all three are eligible to stand for re-election.

Nomination forms were collected through September 27th. See below for the list. If you are nominated and wish not to serve please cross your name off the list in Narthex.

We will announce the final list of nominees at Mass on October 10th.

We plan to collect ballots at Mass on Sunday, October 15th and will accept ballots at the church office beginning Tuesday, October 10th through Wednesday, October 18th. As with nominations, you are welcome to email your vote to the church office.

Questions about parish council nomination and election process can be directed to John Weidner, Parish Council Chair or Ray Kostas, Church Administrator.

ST. PADRE PIO RELIC TOUR VISITS ST. BEDE PARISH

You are invited for one day only to encounter and join the St. Bede parish community in Williamsburg for public veneration of the holy relics of St. Padre Pio of Pietreclina on Friday October 6th. The all day veneration begins with Mass at 9:00 am and will conclude at 6:45 pm with closing prayers. In all, five relics of St. Padre Pio will be available, including a first-class relic. St. Bede is the only Virginia parish in 2023 where the relics will be displayed. Devotional items will be available to purchase.

Don't miss this unique opportunity for a spiritual encounter with one of the most venerated of the modern Saints in the Catholic Church.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Eucharist: Sacred Meal, Sacrifice, Real Presence

During October and November, some parishioners will be meeting in small groups to study our most holy and perfect sacrament. Even if you are not able to participate in this study, please continue to watch this space for questions with answers, reflections and commentary about the Eucharist.

Question: What does it mean to say that the Eucharist is the "source and summit of the Christian life"? What do we mean by "source" and what do we mean by "summit"? (Refer to CCC 1324-1327)

One authoritative answer: To say that the Eucharist is the "source and summit of Christian life" means that all of our being and activity as Christian people finds its starting point and its ultimate conclusion in the Eucharist. The Eucharist is the Real Presence of Christ, and we know that Christ established a community of people and made himself present through the Eucharistic consecration and celebration.

Therefore, the Church begins with Christ and is directed toward Christ, who is entirely present in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. In addition, as a sacramental gift from Christ, our fullest experience of him on earth and our anticipation of deep union with him in eternal life is experienced through participation in the Eucharistic banquet. (Source: Eucharist Small Group Study Leader Guide)

On the first page of the preface of his book This Is My Body: A Call to Eucharistic Revival, Bishop Robert Barron states that the Second Vatican Council clearly taught that the Eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian life."

This idea of "source and summit" was expressed in the following way in Lumen Gentium, the Dogmatic Constitution of the Church, which was published as an outcome of Vatican II:

"Taking part in the Eucharistic sacrifice, which is the fount and apex of the whole Christian life, they (the faithful) offer the Divine Victim of God, and offer themselves along with It."

In the Eucharist, Jesus is really, truly and substantially present under the signs or appearances of bread and wine. This central and crucial reality is the beginning and the end of Christianity.

This week's Question: What is the meaning of the word "eucharist"? (Refer to CCC 1328, 1359-1361)

Please pray for the following:

Arthur Sundeen, Virginia Banks,
Bill Heeke & Charles O'Shaughnessy

SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

We will continue to accept donations and pledge cards for the Catholic Schools this week. If you took an envelope home, please drop it in the collection basket during Mass. Of you need an envelope, please pick one up from the ushers.

We are all aware of the importance of Catholic Schools and their importance to the future of our religion. Several years ago the Diocese launched a "Learn to Lead" campaign to fund local priorities at its 23 schools, and to enhance financial aid. Although it has been successful, the campaign is still short of the original goal. As a result, Bishop Knestout requested a special collection to support our Catholic Schools. Thank you for your support.

"ANYWAY PRAYER"

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway.
