LEGACY

Members of our church gather each week around the communion table, reciting the words of Christ and participating in the sacred meal "in remembrance" of Jesus. That gift has been handed down generation to generation.

Potential
Promise & Purpose

As we recall the names of those who have died, our minds are filled with precious memories. We are their legacy, and much of what we have – in both material and non-material things – have been handed down to us from them. But what will we hand down to those who follow? How will we be remembered? Will we leave more than an empty spot in a pew?

Take home lesson

March 17, 2024

The Reward of Faith

This lesson is adapted from the National Eucharistic Revival Preaching Series Guide.

In today's First Reading from Jeremiah, the Lord God reveals the promise of a new and perfect covenant, prepared for and prefigured by the old covenants. The New Law given by Christ fulfills, refines, and surpasses the laws of the Old Covenant, bringing them to perfection. This New Law is directed at reforming the human heart.

The most solemn covenants of the Old Testament were sealed with a blood sacrifice. In fact, the Hebrew word for covenant, beriyth, means "to cut." Covenants aren't simply "entered into," they are cut. If Jesus is the fulfillment of the Father's promises and the covenant by which he will perfect his previous covenants, then a sacrifice must be made to seal the covenant. That sacrifice is the suffering and Death of Christ on the Cross.

Jesus makes this clear in John's Gospel reading this week when he speaks of the necessity of wheat falling to the earth to die so that it might multiply into many stalks of wheat. The implications are clear—Jesus must go to the Cross, die, and be raised again so that we might receive the life of the Kingdom. He is the paschal sacrifice that seals the new and eternal covenant. Jesus' divine nature and human nature exist together in union.

Jesus invites us to become through grace (adopted sons and daughters of God) what he is by nature (the Son of the Father). This is why Jesus makes this fundamental call through his Church: "repent and be baptized." (Acts 2:38) If we surrender our lives to Jesus (repent) and enter into his covenant through Baptism, then the life of his Kingdom takes root in us and conforms us to him. Jesus makes that clear in his image of wheat. Immediately after that image is an admonition for his followers to embrace the mystery of dying to self:

"Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me." (Jn 12:25-26) Jesus reveals here one of the founding principles of the life of grace: it is in dying to self and embracing surrender that we receive the riches and abundance of divine life within us.

We have an opportunity to enter into that dynamic of surrender, of dying and rising, every time we encounter Jesus in the Eucharist at Mass. Let our "Amen" before receiving Jesus in the Eucharist become an intentional act of holy submission—the surrender of our hearts, minds, and entire lives to the one who died so that we might live.

Can you think of any ways that you have sacrificed your life for the sake of others?

How are your sacrifices and Jesus' sacrifice connected?

WHAT PALM SUNDAY MEANS (next week)

( excerpts from a treatise by D. D. Emmons)

There is both great joy and terrible sorrow associated with this day, the Sunday that begins Holy Week, the Sunday that portends the crucifixion of Our Lord.

It is a time of despair, perplexity and contradiction. The very people who applaud Christ's entrance into Jerusalem that morning, shouting out "Hosanna" and words of adoration will, within a week, be crying, "Crucify Him." They will go from acclaiming Him as the new King of Israel to urging His life be traded in favor of a convicted criminal; they will first praise Him and then mock Him. Even friends entering Jerusalem at His side will desert Jesus. All this discord will take place during one week beginning on what we call Palm Sunday.

Exuberant Crowds

As we read in the Gospels, Jesus went to Jerusalem to join with throngs of Jews to celebrate the Passover feast as had been prescribed in the Old Testament books of Exodus and Deuteronomy. According the Gospel of St. John, Jesus and many of his followers journeyed the less than two miles from Bethany on that Sunday, arriving outside Jerusalem. As was the custom, pilgrims that had already arrived in the city went out to greet newly arriving groups; some had never seen Jesus but had heard about the miracles attributed to Him and were caught up in the excitement.

Previously, Our Lord had deliberately avoided popular acclaim, even fled, but this, upon entering Jerusalem, He accepts. Yet His actions are different than the people expected. He doesn't present himself as a rival to Caesar; He is not the political messiah or the warrior king the multitude had clamored for. Instead of entering Jerusalem on a war horse or chariot, he enters on a donkey, a sign of peace; and not just any donkey, but one on which no one had ever sat, the prerogative of a king. Seeing Him on the donkey, the Jews surging around Him recalled the words of the Prophet Zecharia 500 years earlier.

Riding on the borrowed donkey, Jesus made His humble entrance into the city while the crowds were scattering their garments before Him and waving their palm branches. This joyful scene belies the traitorous acts, sorrow and agony that will soon follow belies that this triumphant hero will be crucified like a criminal.

Palms were symbols of life among the nomadic tribes, who, when crossing the desert, rejoiced at seeing the palm tree as it indicated an oasis with life-giving water was near. Palms have long been a sign of victory, success and glory.

On Palm Sunday, we go out to meet Jesus, carry the blessed palms, joyfully sing out our hosanna and join in His triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. But soon our joy turns to somberness as, clutching our palm, we hear the narrative of Christ's passion. We realize, once again, that His triumph, His true victory, will come through the cross. We know, as Jesus did, how Holy Week will end. We know that joy will return to sorrow and back to joy. We know that through the horror of His suffering, followed by the glory of His resurrection, good will trump evil and life will trump death.

Continued

The palms we take home and put in a special place serve to remind us that Palm Sunday is not lost to the ages but that by Christ's victory we, too can achieve everlasting life. "For us too, the (palms) must be symbols of triumph, indicative of the victory to be won in our battle against the evil in ourselves and against the evil which roams about us. As we receive the blessed palm, let us renew our pledge to conquer with Jesus, but let us not forget that it was on the cross that He conquered"

("Divine intimacy," Father Gabriel of St. Mary Magdalen, O.C.D., Tan Books, 1997, pp. 392-393)

2024 APPEAL

A Message from Fr. Koo,

During the first weeks of Lent, I spoke about the Annual Diocesan Appeal. In this time of Lent, I hope you have taken time to consider how you can support this year's effort which provides essential ministries throughout our Diocese aimed at empowering the next generation of Catholics, helping those in need, and strengthening our parishes and Catholic communities.

It is my hope that every household in our parish contributes to this year's effort. Please visit richmondcatholicfoundation.org/appeal to make a secure online donation or visit our parish office for a hard copy pledge card.

Every gift, no matter the amount, makes a difference. Thank you very much for your prayerful consideration of support. God bless.

If you have a pledge card and wish to send it in, you can drop it in the collection basket or give it to an usher.

SPRING ADULT BIBLE STUDY

The Holy Spirit in the Bible!

A Spring Adult Bible Study of The Holy Spirit in the Bible is scheduled to start on Wednesday,

April 10. The study is six lessons, and we are planning to meet every Wednesday morning from 10:00-11:00, so the study will run through May 15. A second session will be offered each week on either Monday or Thursday evening for those who cannot make the morning sessions. SOUP AND STATIONS #4

Lenten Soup and Stations will be held on Wednesday, March 13th. Sign up sheets for soup makers and bread bakers can be found in the Narthex.

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE DURING LENT

Fasting is to be observed by all 18 years of age and older, who have not yet celebrated their 59th birthday. On a fast day one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including milk and juices, are allowed.

Abstinence is observed by all 14 years of age and older. On days of abstinence no meat is allowed. Note that when health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. When in doubt concerning fast and abstinence, the parish priest should be consulted.

*All the Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting.

SAINT THERESA OF CALCUTTA'S "ANYWAY PRAYER"

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway.
