LEGACY

Members of our church gather each week around the communion table, reciting the words of Christ and participating in the sacred meal “in remembrance” of Jesus. That gift has been handed down generation to generation.

As we recall the names of those who have died, our minds are filled with precious memories. We are their legacy, and much of what we have – in both material and non-material things – have been handed down to us from them. But what will we hand down to those who follow? How will we be remembered? Will we leave more than an empty spot in a pew?

Intimate and Personal Relationship

March 10, 2024

This lesson is adapted from the National Eucharistic Revival Preaching Series Guide.

In this week's First Reading from Exodus, we hear how the Lord gave the Israelites Ten Commandments. The Ten Commandments were more than simply a set of rules to follow; rather, they emerged out of the Jewish people's covenantal relationship with the Lord. A covenant was far more than an alliance or legal agreement. Entering a covenant means formalizing a deep and intimate relationship which becomes an exchange of persons.

In his covenants with the Jewish people, the Lord binds himself to Israel, and the Israelites bind themselves to the Lord. This is the essential meaning of the word religion, which we get from the Latin word ligere, which means "to bind." In this covenant, the Israelites are literally "bound again" to the Lord in relationship. Thus, the first commandment is rooted in relationship with the Lord: "I, the LORD am your God, who brought you out of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me" (Ex 20:2-3).

Following the Ten Commandments, then, is a loving response to the God who led the Israelites out of an experience of slavery into life and freedom. Why is this important for us, who encounter this reading thousands of years after it was written? The Gospel reading helps us answer that question.

All of the covenants which we see in the Old Testament prepare the world for the definitive and eternal covenant in Jesus Christ. The Gospel reading depicts Jesus cleansing the temple. As he turns over the moneychanger's tables, Jesus is reprioritizing relationship with God over exclusively external obedience to rules that has become merely transactional.

The Temple sat at the center of Jewish culture, religion, and society. In many ways, it was one of the foundations of their identity as a people. Jesus' cleansing of the Temple disrupts that essential worship happening within the temple, and he makes a startling declaration. "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his body" (Jn 2:19-21).

Here Jesus identifies himself as the center of authentic worship and relationship with God. Fidelity to the Mosaic law and animal sacrifices are no longer the criteria for understanding ourselves in a valid, intimate relationship with God. Jesus is the way to the Father!

In his actions in today's Gospel, Jesus is demonstrating that, in the new and eternal covenant, authentic worship of the Father will not occur in the context of a place but from within his Person, from within an intimate and personal relationship with Jesus in the midst of his Mystical Body, the Church. And it is in the Holy Eucharist, where we receive Jesus, Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity, that our union with Jesus grows deeper and more profound.

The very first and foundational commandment is about relationship. We are to remove all of the idols in our lives so that God is central. With that in mind, this week we ask:

What are some of the idols that you see in your life that get in the way of making your relationship with God the primary relationship in your life?

LAETARE SUNDAY

Today is Laetare Sunday. Laetare is the first word - meaning "rejoice" — in the Latin text. On Laetare Sunday (as similarly with the Third Sunday of Advent's Gaudete Sunday) the Church expresses hope and joy in the midst of our Lenten fasts and penances. Call it pink — or, more fittingly, rose — this change in color indicates a glimpse of the joy that awaits us at Easter, just before we enter into the somber days of Passiontide.

Laetare Sunday is the Church's way of giving us a "shot in the arm" as we approach the darkness and horror of the days through Good Friday and Holy Saturday. It's an opportunity to savor and keep in the back of our minds what awaits us on Easter Sunday — the reality that Jesus Christ is risen from the dead, and that our hearts will always be filled with joy!

Being aware of traditions and customs assists us in celebrating the beauty of our faith. As you can see, there is much associated with even a nondescript day like the Fourth Sunday of Lent — not to mention the rest of the season, or the 50 days of Easter and beyond. Take advantage of the richness of our Catholic traditions.

Ways to celebrate Laetare Sunday

- *There are no strict rules on how to commemorate Laetare Sunday; below are just a few ideas to add a special touch to the day....
- *Pause and evaluate your Lenten journey so far. Ponder any adjustments you feel a need to make.
- *If you normally practice Lenten fasting on Sundays, consider taking a break on Laetare Sunday (Lent with Sundays is 46 days long; Lent excluding Sundays is 40 days long).
- *Plant a rose bush.
- *Light a rose-colored votive candle & pray for spiritual guidance for the second half of Lent.
- *Work something rose-colored into your outfit.
- *Give a rose to someone who has spiritually influenced you ...a parent, a good friend, Bible Study teacher, your children's CCD teacher, etc.
- *Give a rose to a "spiritual mother," maybe someone who had never had children, but has given generously to others.
- *Make a Laetare Sunday cake, You can find many recipes for a traditional English Simnel cake online, but any cake or special treat will do.
- *If it's not too far away, visit your Mother Church (Cathedral). Spend a bit of time in prayer and try to learn about one piece of artwork in the church.
- *Discuss with your family the Gospel reading of the day and how it represents joy.

2024 APPEAL

A Message from Fr. Koo,

During the first weeks of Lent, I spoke about the Annual Diocesan Appeal. In this time of Lent, I hope you have taken time to consider how you can support this year's effort which provides essential ministries throughout our Diocese aimed at empowering the next generation of Catholics, helping those in need, and strengthening our parishes and Catholic communities.

It is my hope that every household in our parish contributes to this year's effort. Please visit richmondcatholicfoundation.org/appeal to make a secure online donation or visit our parish office for a hard copy pledge card.

Every gift, no matter the amount, makes a difference. Thank you very much for your prayerful consideration of support. God bless.

If you have a pledge card and wish to send it in, you can drop it in the collection basket or give it to an usher.

SPRING ADULT BIBLE STUDY

The Holy Spirit in the Bible!

A Spring Adult Bible Study of The Holy Spirit in the Bible is scheduled to start on Wednesday, April 10. The study is six lessons, and we are planning to meet every Wednesday morning from 10:00-11:00, so the study will run through May 15. A second session will be offered each week on either Monday or Thursday evening for those who cannot make the morning sessions. Contact John Weidner at jaweidner1@verizon.net or 240-780-1872 if you would like to join our study group or if you would like additional information.

SOUP AND STATIONS #4

Lenten Soup and Stations will be held on Wednesday, March 13th. Sign up sheets for soup makers and bread bakers can be found in the Narthex.

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE DURING LENT

Fasting is to be observed by all 18 years of age and older, who have not yet celebrated their 59th birthday. On a fast day one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including milk and juices, are allowed.

Abstinence is observed by all 14 years of age and older. On days of abstinence no meat is allowed. Note that when health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. When in doubt concerning fast and abstinence, the parish priest should be consulted.

All the Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting.

A HUGE THANKS

We fervently thank parishioner Mark Fatigato, owner of Fatigato contracting services, for his offer to provide, free lawn care services for the church and cemetery. It's an extremely gracious donation of services, heretofore never done.

Thank you sincerely Mark.

SUCCESS OF THE CATHOLIC SCHOOLS' LEARN TO LEAD CAMPAIGN

As you recall, we had a special collection last fall in support of the subject campaign. In a recent letter, the Diocese heralded the success of the collection (Totaled $341,927) and the overall campaign effort which raised over $32 million for the Diocesan Catholic Schools.

REGRETS

We are saddened to announce the death two weeks ago of parishioner Bettie Hodge. Homebound the last few years, Bettie joined the church in 2000 and immediately became an active parishioner. Noted for her work at Daily Mass, watering plants, and feeding the cats. Her burial and Mass of Resurrection were held Saturday.

Please pray for the following:

William LeCompte, Kathleen Paul Anspach, and Bettie Hodge

SAINT THERESA OF CALCUTTA'S "ANYWAY PRAYER"

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway.

Breathe in Love, Exhale Peace.
