LEGACY

Permanent endowments are gifts that keep on giving. If the endowment agreement states that the principal shall never be invaded and that income is paid out to support a designated cause through your church, then your gift is "forever."

Trusts allow you to make a gift to your church in the future. You may set up the trust now and keep the income for yourself or other beneficiaries as long as you choose, or for life. The church will receive the property after that. There are special tax benefits for these kinds of trusts.

Charitable Remainder Trusts allow you to make a gift to your church while retaining income from the gifted asset during your lifetime (and that of your spouse). If the trust is funded with appreciated property, capital gains taxes may be avoided. There will also be a significant current income tax deduction at the time the trust is created.

GIFTS OF THE VISITATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
- RECAPPING OUR PARISH RETREAT

Last Friday, May 31, our parish celebrated our namesake feast day, the Feast of The Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, with a parish retreat that included a morning of prayer and reflection followed by Mass at noon.

One of our parishioners in attendance commented that while we do indeed live up to the name of our parish by warmly welcoming visitors, the reflections she experienced during the retreat caused her to recognize how Mary's journey to Elizabeth has a much deeper meaning and can challenge us to adopt a mission much like Mary's.

Eileen O'Brien opened the morning by offering thoughts on what both Mary and Elizabeth must have been feeling as their unusual pregnancies progressed. It is in Mary's nature to give, and she gives companionship and assistance to Elizabeth for three months. Eileen also offered that the Visitation art that we see each week attached to our bulletin email tries to capture the joy Elizabeth feels when her unborn son moves for the first time: "For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy." (Luke 1:44)

Pat DeGroot offered some background on the landscape of the Holy Land and shared 2000 year old Roman glass that she had acquired during her many visits to Israel. Pat speculated that as Mary walked the 80 miles to Elizabeth's home, perhaps she reflected upon the Song of Hannah, the mother of Samuel, the prophet who anointed King David. Hannah, like Elizabeth, was thought to be barren, yet her prayers for a child were answered. Hannah's song begins: "My heart exults in the Lord, My horn is exalted in my God." (1 Samuel 2:1) So, when Elizabeth greets Mary, Mary's song "spills out": "My being proclaims the greatness of the Lord, My spirit finds joy in God my savior..." (Luke 1:46-47)

After first listening to Pat and Eileen read two different translations of the Visitation narrative from the Gospel according to Saint Luke (Luke 1:39-56), Bill Plunkert led the retreaters through a contemplative prayer exercise. Reflecting deeply, retreaters attempted to still their thoughts and observe or even enter into the scene in Zechariah's house. After reflection, some shared new perspectives, things about the Visitation narrative they had not before considered.

After experiencing the gifts of Holy Mass and then the gift of lunch courtesy of Johnna Harris, John Weidner and Debbie Harriman shared stories of religious art they had been gifted and Tom and Cindy Jessee shared highlights from their recent journey to Fatima.

May God continue to bless us with an abundance of gifts and may the Holy Spirit inspire us to use them to accomplish His Will!

Take Home Lesson

Living in God's Kingdom

June 16, 2024

This week's lesson is adapted from scripture scholar Stephen Lampe's commentary about today's Gospel in our Workbook for Lectors, Gospel Readers and Proclaimers on the Word.

In order to understand the message of Mark's Gospel, it is important to recall that Mark's original audience was a community of persecuted Christians who needed hope. Read in this light, today's Gospel reading offers encouragement in their work of building up the kingdom of God.

Among Jesus's teachings are parables about the kingdom of God, which often make their point through agricultural images familiar to his audience. Today's Gospel includes two such parables, as well as a note informing us that Jesus often interpreted his parable privately for his disciples. The parables told by Jesus usually have a twist, so they do not simply tell how life is but challenge the hearer to convert to how life can be in God's realm.

The parables of the scattered seed and the mustard seed describe the kingdom of God and contain two powerful insights into the nature of that kingdom. There is a contrast between small beginnings (scattered seed and a tiny mustard seed) and their final form (fully grown grain and a large plant). Equally important in this passage is the fact that what at present appears imperceptible will grow in mysterious ways. The unspoken conclusion is that God is at work.

The note at the end of today's Gospel reading, that Jesus teaches the disciples privately, along with the earlier insight into the slow and mysterious unfolding of the kingdom, offers a powerful message of hope in the face of suffering. To Mark's suffering and persecuted community, Jesus' message offers hope that the seed sown by Christ and through Christian witness is in fact growing and maturing in mysterious and divinely directed ways toward the fullness of God's kingdom. They need only to hear it, accept it, and patiently allow it to bear fruit.

"God's Kingdom," Pope Francis said, "is above all the initiative and gift of the Lord. Our weak effort, seemingly small before the complexity of the problems of the world, when integrated with God's effort, fears no difficulty. The victory of the Lord is certain...This opens us up to trust and hope, despite the tragedies, the injustices, the sufferings that we encounter."

It seems that God wants good things to start small and grow over time. He wants to involve us, through our choices, in what he is doing. So he plants seeds, and he wants us to cultivate them.

What can you do this week to cultivate a seed of faith in your heart or your neighbor's heart?

The Shriners collect can tabs and use the money to fund drivers who take the children and their parents to have treatments at Shriner Hospitals. They often travel to Ohio, Pennsylvania, Boston, Greenville, and Lexington. They have earned over 1.5 million dollars over the years from the tabs.

A lady in my quilting guild is one of their drivers, and so we all collect tabs for her. I am in hopes that you will start taking a few seconds to snap the tabs off your drinks and keep them for me.

I have a marked bucket for them on the ministry table in the Narthex.

I appreciate your help as I am sure the children and their parents are so grateful also.

Thanks so much! Eileen

ORDINARY TIME

We have now re-entered the period of the Liturgical year entitled Ordinary Time. Ordinary Time refers to all of those parts of the Catholic Church's liturgical year that aren't included in the major seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter. Ordinary Time thus encompasses two different periods in the Church's calendar, since the Christmas season immediately follows Advent, and the Easter season immediately follows Lent.

Because of the term ordinary in English most often means something that's not special or distinctive, many people think that Ordinary Time refers to parts of the calendar of the Catholic Church that are unimportant. Even though the season of Ordinary Time makes up most of the liturgical year in the Catholic Church, the fact that Ordinary Time refers to those periods that fall outside of the major liturgical seasons reinforces this impression. Yet Ordinary Time is far from unimportant or uninteresting.

The normal liturgical color for Ordinary Time for those days when there is no special Feast is green. Green vestments and altar cloths have traditionally been associated with the time after Pentecost, the period in which the Church founded by the risen Christ and enlivened by the Holy Spirit began to grow and to spread the Gospel to all nations.

PARISH PICNIC

My heart felt thanks to a wonderful and energetic group of parish life volunteers. We had three wonderful enjoyable social events in May for the benefit of the parish. These tireless workers deserve a few months rest. We will see you again for Social Sunday in September. Enjoy you summer. Johnna

WINNER AGAIN

Parishioner Becky Nunn has done it again, Being crowned Ms. Senior Earth 80tys in Branson, Missouri, on May 30th. Becky represented the state of Virginia in the contest and will be promoting the pageant throughout the coming year.

A FATHER'S DAY PRAYER

Bless those fathers, who have taken it upon themselves the responsibility of parenting.
Bless those fathers, who have lost a spouse to death...or divorce, who are parenting their children alone.
Bless those fathers, who when the money runs low and when we need things; they provide.
Bless those fathers, who love unconditionally when they think they can't and they do.
Bless our fathers and give them grace and patience to handle situations in a loving way.
Bless our fathers by strengthening them with Your love that they may become the loving, caring fathers they are meant to be.
Bless our fathers by guiding them to be good role models and love all Your children.
Bless our fathers who choose to be brave and serve in the military. Thank you to the fathers who protect us, when we are scared and frightened.
Bless our fathers that with Your help, will be a father like You.
God, grant that we, their sons and daughters, will always honor them, love them and respect them.
God, heavenly father, bless all the fathers in the world. We ask you to grant this through Christ Our Lord and the Holy Spirit.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

ST NOA UPDATE

As you are aware, we continue to support St Noa School in Uganda, a school we built in conjunction with Francis de Sales. The joint venture has transformed the community and saved children from having to trek many miles through uncertain and dangerous territory to receive a basic education.

Father Gerry recently reported that the money we have sent to the school the past few months from our special collections has paid for teachers' continuing education, new textbooks for an integrated curriculum, new desktop computers, and food supplies.

SAINT THERESA OF CALCUTTA'S

"ANYWAY PRAYER"

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway.
