Journey Through The Bible - Setting the Stage

Father Koo invites everyone in the parish to join him on a year long “Journey through the Bible” in 2025. Starting January 1, we will follow a daily reading plan that covers the entire Catholic Bible in 365 days. Here are some questions with answers about the Journey:

If we are using the same reading plan that Father Mike Schmitz uses for his “The Bible in a Year” podcast, why couldn’t we just listen to Father Mike’s podcast and follow along in our Bibles? Father Koo encourages us to find a quiet space each day for a few minutes, invoke the Holy Spirit and engage the Word with our eyes, hearts and minds. We are accustomed to hearing the Word proclaimed at Mass. While listening to an audio book of the Bible or to Father Mike’s podcast has merit, Father Koo suggests our individual study may be enhanced if we hold the Bible in our hands and become more familiar with Scripture as it appears in writing on the pages of the Bible.

Which Bible translation should we use? For our Journey, Father Koo encourages us to read from the New American Bible, revised edition (NABRE). The New American Bible (NAB), first published in 1970, has become the standard American Catholic edition of the Bible. It was commissioned by the American Catholic bishops and translated under the auspices of the Catholic Bible Association. Both the Old and New Testaments have been revised in recent years (NABRE). This is the translation that we year proclaimed at Sunday and daily Mass in the United States.

Are other translations acceptable? Yes, the Catholic editions of the Revised Standard Version (RSV) and the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) during our Journey. The RSV is the translation used in The Great Adventure Bible and read by Father Mike Schmitz for his podcast. The RSV is a revision of the King James Bible that sought to preserve the literary style of the earlier translation while taking into account changes in the English language and advances in scholarship. The NRSV is considered a faithful and accurate translation in contemporary English.

What is meant by a “Catholic edition” of the Bible? In Catholic Editions of the Bible, there are 46 books in the Old Testament and 27 books in the New Testament. Catholic editions include seven books of the Old Testament sometimes referred to as the Deuterocanonicals/Apocrypha (Tobit, Judith, I Maccabees, 2 Maccabees, Wisdom, Wisdom of Ben Sira, and Baruch). These books are oftentimes not included in popular, modern translations, such as the New International Version (NIV).

There are many copies of the New American Bible (red cover, paperback editions) amongst the bookshelves throughout the Church of the Visitation. You are encouraged to borrow one for reading in your home throughout 2025 or until you are able to acquire your own copy.

ADVENT CANDLE LIGHTING SONG #3

Light the Advent Candle three.
Think of happy harmony.
Angels singing “Peace on earth”
At the Savior’s blessed birth.

Candle, candle, burning bright,
Shining in the cold winter night.
Candle, candle, burning bright,
Fill our hearts with Advent light

CHRISTMAS FLOWERS

If you donated to the special collection for Christmas flowers and wish to honor a loved one, please email the office with the names of your loved ones or drop off a note with the names. They will be published in the Christmas bulletin.

2025 ENVELOPES

The 2025 envelopes are now available for pickup on the admin table in the Narthex. For the convenience of parishioners who normally use e-giving for offertory donation, we have printed envelopes for you to utilize if appropriate for second collections.

ADVENT REMINDERS

Copies of the advent schedule are available on the admin table in the narthex. Also there are copies of the Little Blue Books, the popular series of 6 minute reflections during the Christmas Season.

FATIH FORMATION NEWS

Celebrate the joy of the season with our Children's Christmas Pageant and Sing-Along, beginning at 6:30 PM on December 24th in the church. Watch as our children bring the story of Christ’s birth to life through their heartfelt performance, followed by a festive sing-along to prepare our hearts for the celebration of Mass. For safety and to avoid disruptions, we kindly ask anyone not seated by 6:30 PM to remain in the narthex until the pageant ends, as the lights will be dimmed during the performance. The doors will reopen afterward, allowing time to be seated for the sing-along before Mass.

After the pageant practice on Saturday, December 21st, join us for a family-friendly Christmas movie and pizza dinner! Open to all parishioners—come enjoy an evening of fun and fellowship as we celebrate the season together. Pageant practice is at 4 pm with dinner and movie to follow around 5 pm.

A heartfelt thank-you to everyone who helped pack 75 boxes for Operation Christmas Child! Special thanks to our Knitting Ministry for crafting hats, scarves, and washcloths for each box, and to Anne Wolski, who lovingly made reusable menstrual pads for the teenage girls. We are so grateful to the countless others who donated their time, money, items, and love to make this effort a success. Your generosity will bring joy and hope to children in need this Christmas season. Stay tuned to find out where our boxes end up!

GAUDETE SUNDAY “JOY”

The color of the Season of Advent is violet. In order to distinguish between Advent and Lent, the bluer hues of violet may be used.

Rose colored vesture will be worn on the Third Sunday of Advent, which is termed Gaudete Sunday.

What is special about the Third Sunday of the Church’s history? This Sunday has a special name: “Gaudete” Sunday.

On this day the season of Advent shifts its focus. For the first two weeks of Advent, the focus can be summed up in the phrase, “The Lord is coming.” But beginning with Gaudete Sunday, the summary might be, “The Lord is near.” This shift is marked by a lighter mood and a heightened sense of joyous anticipation. Liturgically, the colors lighten as well. The priest usually wears rose colored vestments, a hue seen only on Gaudete Sunday and Laetare Sunday in Lent. On this day, we light the third candle of the Advent wreath, which is also rose-colored, or if you prefer, pink.

Why is the third Sunday of Advent known as Gaudete Sunday?

Its name is taken from the entrance antiphon of the Mass, which is: Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near.

This is a quotation from Philippians 4:4-5, and in Latin, the first word of the antiphon is Gaudete (Latin, “rejoice” it’s also pronounced with three syllables: gau-de-te).

THE SEASON OF ADVENT

General Background on the Season

Advent has a twofold character, for it is a time of preparation for the Solemnities of Christmas, in which the First coming of the Son of God to humanity is remembered, and likewise a time when, by the First coming of the Son of God to humanity is remembered, and likewise a time when, by remembrance of this, minds and hearts are led to look forward to Christ's Second Coming at the end of time. For these two reason, Advent is a period of devout and expectant delight
(Universal Norms of the Liturgical Year.)

With the beginning of Advent is, too the beginning of the new liturgical year (2025), and year C of the three Liturgical years.

The use of the advent wreath has become popular practice in the church. The concept of the Advent wreath originated among German Lutherans in the 16th Century. However, it was not until three centuries later that the modern Advent wreath took shape. The modern Advent wreath, with its candles representing the Sundays of Advent, originated from an 1839 initiative by Johann Hinrich Wichern, a Protestant pastor in Germany and a pioneer in urban mission work among the poor.

THE FOUR ADVENT CANDLES

As a Christian tradition, the wreath hold the four Advent candles. The candles represent Jesus coming as the light in darkness. One candle is lit each Sunday until all four candles are lit. As Christmas draws nearer, each candle brings a little more light into the darkness. Sometimes a white candle is lit on Christmas Eve or Christmas day to symbolize that Jesus is with us. This can be referred to as the "Christ candle."

Week three

Candle Name: Shepherd's candle
3rd Week of Advent Represents: Joy & Kindness
Candle Color: Pink

This third candle is pink and symbolizes rejoicing. During the third week of Advent we are filled with joy for the near arrival of Jesus on Christmas day. This Sunday is often called "Gaudete Sunday" as we reflect on the joy the shepherds felt at the birth of Jesus.

CHRISTMAS SOCIAL

From the record attendance of approximately 110 persons, a hearty cheer and thanks for a joyous event that embodied the community spirit of our wondrous parish. The parish life committee worked tirelessly over the weekend to prepare the fare and our choir sang. Thanks to all the committee members, especially their leader, Johnna. A special thanks to Roseanne Moncure, who decorated the tree and fellowship hall, Peggy Williams for the shrimp, and Santa (Al Langer.) Our youth said "Best spread ever!" Thank you to all.

SAINT THERESA OF CALCUTTA'S "ANYWAY PRAYER"

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway.
