Journey Through the Bible: More Commentary on the Book of Genesis

This commentary is adapted from Little Rock Scripture Study's "Panorama of the Old Testament."

The stories of Genesis 3-11 show how the effects of sin multiply and destroy human relationships with God, with other people, and with the created world. After sin, Adam hides from God; he blames Eve, and he is expelled from the harmony of the garden and made to work for food with hard labor. When Eve gives birth to Cain and Abel, rivalry grows between them. Out of jealousy, Cain murders his brother and must wander alone upon the earth. The family that God desires to be a place of support and companionship becomes a breeding ground for envy, resentment, rage, and vengeance.

Accounts of family rivalry lead up to the story of Noah and the catastrophic flood. Violence and corruption have so filled the world that God regrets making human beings on the earth. In God's desire to remake the world, he saves Noah and his family as well as a remnant of every species upon the earth. God remains committed to creation despite the destructive effects of human beings. Following the flood, God establishes a covenant with every living creature with the rainbow as its sign.

The final story of sin's expansion is the huge tower of Babel, which becomes the symbol of humans' arrogance as they attempt to go it alone in defiance of the Creator. God condemns the human pride that inspired it and judges the people by confusing their language and scattering them abroad.

The stories describe tendencies that move deep within every person. Men and women are inclined to act in ways that lead to estrangement and blame each other for it. Siblings tend to fight with one another and grow apart. Human beings tend to think they have the power and wisdom of God, and they suffer in their sinful choices. Men and women are good, yet flawed and fallen. Although God passionately wills life and blessing for his creatures, all of these blessings begin to be destroyed because of sin. The power of death gets increasingly stronger and the world begins to return to the chaos from which it came.

Father Koo summarized all of the above very neatly last Sunday as caused by a sort of "virus" that is carried in every human being: envy.

We can turn to the Catechism for guidance on how to combat envy:

Envy represents a form of sadness and therefore a refusal of charity; the baptized person should struggle against it by exercising good will. Envy often comes from pride; the baptized person should train himself to live in humility: Would you like to see God glorified by you? Then rejoice in your brother's progress and you will immediately give glory to God. Because his servant could conquer envy by rejoicing in the merits of others, God will be praised. (CCC 2540)

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Today the Church celebrates the Feast of the Baptism of Our Lord. This feast brings to an end the season of Christmas. Ordinary Time lasts from the day after this feast to the Tuesday before Lent.

The Church recalls Our Lord's second manifestation or epiphany which occurred on the occasion of His baptism in the Jordan. Jesus descended into the River to sanctify its waters and to give them the power to beget sons of God. The event takes on the importance of a second creation in which the entire Trinity intervenes.

In the Eastern Church this feast is called Theophany because at the baptism of Christ in the River Jordan God appeared in three persons. The baptism of John was a sort of sacramental preparatory for the Baptism of Christ. It moved men to sentiments of repentance and induced them to confess their sins. Christ did not need the baptism of John. Although He appeared in the "substance of our flesh" and was recognized "outwardly like unto ourselves", He was absolutely sinless and impeccable. He conferred upon the water the power of the true Baptism which would remove all the sins of the world: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold Him Who takes away the sin of the world".

Many of the incidents which accompanied Christ's baptism are symbolical of what happened at our Baptism. At Christ's baptism the Holy Spirit descended upon Him; at our Baptism the Trinity took its abode in our soul. At His baptism Christ was proclaimed the "Beloved Son" of the Father; at our Baptism we become the adopted sons of God. At Christ's baptism the heavens were opened; at our Baptism heaven was opened to us. At His baptism Jesus prayed; after our Baptism we must pray to avoid actual sin. —Excerpted from Msgr. Rudolph G. Bandas

ENVELOPES, CALENDARS, AND TAX STATEMENTS

Our 2025 envelopes are available for pickup on the admin table in the Narthex. Some e-givers have wondered why we printed envelopes for them. It was done to provide, by request, envelopes for the scheduled second collections. Also if you desire a tax statement for this year, please place your name on the writing tablet located in the same area, and take a free calendar.

WE'RE IN THE NEWS AGAIN!

The recent edition of the Catholic Virginian highlighted the church of the Visitation on its first page. Specifically, it noted our Angel Tree Program for the prisoners children and the shoebox "Operation Christmas" program sponsored by our Faith Formation students. For those of you who missed the article, a copy is in the narthex.

KOC PANCAKE BREAKFAST

The Knights of Columbus will be sponsoring a Pancake Breakfast January 26th after Mass. The menu will be pancakes, sausage, juice & coffee. Please stay after and enjoy breakfast and camaraderie with fellow parishioners.
Donations accepted.

FLOWER GUILD

COV cordially invites you to join our 2nd Annual FLOWER GUILD Ministry. Last Year many parishioners joined in beautifying the front of the altar with flowers/plants during Ordinary Time, thank you!

Please consider sponsoring a Sunday to adorn our Sanctuary with fresh flowers/plants. You may wish to commemorate an anniversary, birthday, special intention, memorial for a loved one or simply just because. In lieu of flowers a monetary gift can also be gifted to purchase flowers/plants.

At this time the FLOWER GUILD is seeking flower/plant donations only during Sundays in Ordinary Time as the seasons of Easter and Christmas are handled separately. A signup will be in the Narthex after Mass. Please contact Kari Lee Donovan or Roseanne Moncure for more information/signup.

THANK YOU!

Thank you so much to all those who stayed after Mass last Sunday to help take down the Christmas decorations. We couldn't have taken down, organized and stored everything in such a timely way if it weren't for you. A special thanks goes out to all those who climbed up into the attic to get the decorations out of the way! Our parishioners can always be counted on to answer the call for help and we can't thank you enough! -Art & Environment

 People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered; forgive them anyway.
 If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; be kind anyway.
 If you are successful, you will win some false friends and true enemies; succeed anyway.
 If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; be honest and frank anyway.
 What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; build it anyway.
 If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; be happy anyway.
 The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; do good anyway.
 Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; give the world the best you've got anyway.
